

Release no. 1/2011

Columbus IT wins its largest order for the retail-industry ever

Columbus IT has entered into agreement with an American based retail-chain regarding deliverance of Microsoft Dynamics AX for retail for 500 stores in Mexico, Canada, Japan, England, Belgium, France, Ireland, Germany, and Spain. The American retail-chain will be implementing Columbus IT's industry-specific retail it-solution which is based on Microsoft Dynamic AX. The agreement furthermore includes strategic planning, implementation, consultancy services and software licenses.

The agreement with the American retail-chain is strategically important to Columbus IT and strengthens the company's ambition of delivering business-critical IT solutions for the retail-industry globally.

The agreement with the American retail-chain does not change Columbus IT's expectations to 2010.
